How Do I Know?

Words by LEW BROWN

Music by AL VON TILZER

Moderato

You say you're always thinking of me, You say you'll
You say you cannot live without me, You say Im al-ways be sin-cere_ You tell me that you'll al-ways love me, I don't all the world to you_ And if you re-al-ly care a-bout me, You'll make like to doubt you, dear_ I must ad-mit I'd hate to lose you, You're the all my dreams come true_ I know my heart tells me be-lieve you, But there's a tempo

You may be wild a-bout me, But how do I know?

You say how lov-ing you'll be, But how do I know?

Of sweet-hearts, you've had a few They don't speak kind-ly of you

I know you'll say it's un-true. Still it wor-ries me so,

How do I know...
They say that you'll break my heart where ever I go.

So if you're playing a part you'd better go slow.

You say you'd sigh for me, cry for me, You'd even lay down and die for me. But tell me, tell me how do I know?

You may be know.
