Ladies Day In Dixie

Lyric by PHIL PONCE

Music by JIMMIE McHUGH

Moderato

Down in Dix-ie, down in Dix-ie you ought to see
There's a shad-y dusk-y la-dy dressed like a doll

Every sister with a Mis-ter danc-ing with glee Tho' she's fif-ty she looks nif-ty just like'em all

Oh Boy what joy ev'y-where danc-ing a-lore

You tell'em brother I want to be there
They're hop-pin' to it and shout-in' for more

Copyright 1921 by Jack Mills Inc. 152 W. 45th St. New York City
International Copyright Secured

MADE IN U.S.A.
Good-ness gracious, see their faces
Handy Andy, fine and dandy
All full of smiles
That boy's no bluff
Strut-tin' pretty
Say he knows it

Round the city, show in their styles and he shows it strut-tin' his stuff
All set for Down where the

One big cele-bra-tion.
Just see 'em rac-in' all happy and gay
Missis-sip-pi's flow-ing,
Just see 'em go-in' for their hol-i-day

CHORUS
See those lad-ies from Dix-ie Dressed in the best in the

Ladies Day in Dixie
-land

Here comes a dark gal that's Sal

Now watch the chances she takes when she dances All the Mam-mie's are toddlin' Shufflin' a-long by the band

They're shoutin' Yea! Bo! Come on and let's go, 'Cause it's ladies day in