Ain't Love Grand!

Words and Music by
B. G. DE SYLVA
WALTER DONALDSON
and CON CONRAD

Moderato

Piano

Voice

Who was it said that a man is crazy
Take my advice if you have no sweetie

Vamp

To ever fall in love?
You'd better fall in love

I'd like to bet he's jealous
There's really nothing like it

There's not a thrill in the jealous strike it

Of all the love sick fellows
Who said that love was a

Copyright MCMXXII by Harry Von Tilzer Music Pub.Co., 1658 Broadway, New York
All Rights Reserved
The Publishers reserve the right to the use of this Copyrighted work upon the parts of Instruments serving to reproduce it Mechanically great big lemon? It's really like a rose world compared to a little sweetheart's kiss

It's wonderful! It's marvellous! I'm one who knows.
It's wonderful! It's marvellous! Just picture this.

Chorus
Every night sitting in the parlor ain't love grand? Douse the light then you start to hol- ler.

"Ain't love grand?" Her folks are list'n ing in the room up stairs and then Grand ma tick les

Grand pa's chin Says, "you're old but don't give in"

Morning breaks bird ies are a peep in' Ain't love

Ain't Love Grand! 4
grand! — You’re a - wake but your leg is sleep-ing Aint love grand! — Then you play “Put and Take” till her Dad gets there He "puts" in his foot and you "take" the air! What of it?

You love it Aint love grand! grand!