COCK-A-DOODLE-DOO
(The Story Of The Rooster And The Hen)
SONG

By CLIFF FRIEND & CON CONRAD

Copyright MCMXXII by JEROME H. REMICK & CO, New York & Detroit
Copyright, Canada, MCMXXII by Jerome H. Remick & Co.
Performing Rights Reserved

MADe IN U.S.A
Rooster crows, goodness knows
I can't sleep no

Seem the Hen's step-pin' out With some other more bird

When I hear
Cock-a-doo's
"Sweetie dear"

got the blues

Aint you coming out"
Then I see our

Can't blame him at all But this morn at l'tle Hen break of dawn

Cackle when the Rooster shouts
To the Hen I heard him call

Cock-A-Doodle-Doo
CHORUS

Cock-a-doodle-doo Im after you My love is true Just say that

Cock-a-doodle-doo Im after you My love is true Just say that you will only marry me

you will only marry me

One and one is two and one is three So you can see that we will

One and one is two and one is three So you can see that we will

I'll stop

be a happy family

be a happy family

I've been

I'll stop
chasing chickens honestly

And will raise the dickens crying for you night and day

I fell for you but you chasing chickens cause I'm thru

I'll give up those hard-boiled you and me wait and see let me lay sad to say.

Cock a-doodle-doo My little eggs I knew all for you

Cock a-doodle-doo We'll raise the pet I'll get you yet

And don't forget Your papa do love.

deuce what's the use

Don't be a goose Your papa do love

1. you

2. you D.S.

Cock-A-Doodle-Doo