Happiness In Every Box

Lyric by HERBERT THOMSON

Music by
SAMUEL H. SPECK

Moderato

This world is full of sad-ness, Of trou-ble, tears and sor-row; And When good friends, bent on pleas-ure, Make up a hap-py part-y, Good what we get of glad-ness We most-ly have to bor-row. True hap-pi-ness is on-ly found In can-dy is a treas-ure To keep them gay and heart-y. And when a fel-low pays a call Up-deeds and things worth while! That's why, when can-dy time comes round, You'll sure-ly see 'em smile.

on his la-dy fair, He knows that can-dy beats 'em all And makes her real-ly care.

CHORUS

There's hap-pi-ness in ev-'ry box, There's cheer for one and all — There's joy un-told for young and old, For big folks and for small! There's hap-pi-ness for moth-er, for sis-ter and for bro-ther, for grand-ma with the sil-ver in her locks!

p-f

E-ven Dad-dy likes his can-dy, and he al-ways keeps some han-dy, For he knows that there is hap-pi-ness in ev - 'ry box. There's box.
