The Name Of Kelly
FOX TROT SONG

Lyric and Music by GEORGE M. COHAN

What's the greatest grandest name?
Kelly is the name we say.

What's the name the world holds dear?
Kelly is the name we say.

What's the name that's known for fame?
Kelly is the name we say.

What's the name that all men fear?
Kelly is the name we say.

Copyright MCMXXII by M.Witmark & Sons
International Copyright Secured say, Syn-on-o-mous with Hoo-ray! By Kil-lar-ney's say, Syn-on-o-mous with o-bey. From Kil-lar-ney lakes I swear, You nev-er were so right be-fore. Its the grand-est name that came the Kel-lys In their er-mine-cape and things, Its the name was known to ever came From the dear old Em-er-al-d shore own a throne, In the days of Ire-lands kings

REFRAIN

The name of Kel-ly has ruled for man-y a day There's a

M.W. & Sons 16881-3
swing to the name And a ring to the name That command the right of way — O’Brien and Ryan and Sullivan. And Mulligan all say — That any Kelly with a K E. double L Y Is more than common clay. He’s a king with a cap-i-tal K. K.

M.W. & Sons 16681-3