When You And I Were Young

Maggie Blues

By JACK FROST
and JIMMY McHUGH

Moderato

I've been requested to sing an old time song,
Some-thing our grand-daddies used to sing.

But I'm afraid I would make that old ditty sound all wrong, 'cause I'd fill it with "blues" and every thing.

But I've a little plan, And I'll do the best I can to sing an old song so we all can understand:

Maggie Blues

That Funny Little Fox-Trot—"Deedle Deedle Dum"—An Odd Ditty
You simply take a favorite Then you flavor it with just a note or two of I wandered today to the hill, blue harmony, Tell the orchestra to play stacato, and then you jazz a little Maggie, to watch the scene below, obligato Now that Maggie tune is a ragtime tune Pay no attention to the The creek and the creaking old mill music that they play but just rock your blues away, on the spot start to Maggie as we used to long ago
