you would repent the day that you went away. You turned as sending bad news to my little used to be. You thought the red as a ruby much too good to be true. You thought I'd minute you'd shake me that it would make me blue. And I would sit around lonely thinking of only you little you knew that

When you walked out some-one else walked right in p-f

Some-one with good news stepped right in your shoes

Some-bod-y else took your place on my knee Another sweet-ie in clover fuss-in' all o-ver me I saw that you grew so cold love, so what could I do off with the old love and on with the new

When you walked out honey I just had to grin

You left the door wide open and somebody else walked in
