Deep In My Heart, Dear
Duet
(Prince and Kathie)

Words by DOROTHY DONNELLY

Music by SIGMUND ROMBERG

KATHIE: I guess love is only for rich people, I don't know anything about it.

Moderato

PRINCE: What is that? A nightingale?

KATHIE: No, that's poor Nicolas playing his pipe.

PRINCE: It seems to be telling us something.

Do you hear it?

PRINCE: It's saying 'tis Springtime, the buds are opening, the birds are returning, it's saying love. LOVE . . .

KATHIE: Don't, I must not listen.

Andantino

KATHIE: Of love I often heard And all it's joy

How ev'ry heart is stirred, Both girl and boy,

But though in love alone Is tender

bliss

My lips have never known a lover's kiss.

Oh,

Valse moderate

tell—me if within your heart you know a tender longing sweet as mine
A spell

that fills me full of joy
And through my veins like

wine runs joy divine
It is the spring?

That's calling you and me.

Joy is in the air, Cast a-way all care, Ev'-ry song that's sung Tells us we are young!

Is this some spell of magic May?
