JOIN THE MAGIC OF MAINSTAGE!

See the stars of tomorrow today. Guest artists and renowned faculty work side-by-side with bright, new talent. This fall offers everything from family friendly to urban edgy plays, musicals, dances and music.

MAINSTAGE LYRIC OPERA THEATRE
Mainstage Lyric Opera Theatre brings three great shows to life this fall. The Boyfriend is a musical introducing mistaken identities and secret romances. American Gothic is an original opera and musical that attempts to get behind the meaning of the painting of the stoic farm couple. Amahl and the Night Visitors is a holiday favorite defining faith, love and good deeds.

The Boyfriend runs Sept. 30–Oct. 9.
American Gothic runs Nov. 18 and 19.
Amahl and the Night Visitors runs Nov. 20–Dec. 3.

MAINSTAGE THEATRE
Mainstage Theatre introduces a bold assortment of shows. Orchids in the Moonlight revisits the careers of legendary actresses from Mexican cinema. The King Stag is a whimsical 18th-century comic fable for all ages. A Festival of New Work premiers a trio of intriguing plays by ASU faculty and students: Taking Leave brings the impact of war and responsibility to the front line; We Lost It at the Movies follows a Chilean woman's dream to live in her fabled Hollywood; and La Vida Loca is a young Mexican man's saucy reflections on a range of topics including politics and sexuality.

Orchids in the Moonlight runs Oct. 7–22.
The King Stag runs Oct. 28–Nov. 6.
A Festival of New Work runs Nov. 17–22.

MAINSTAGE DANCE
Mainstage Dance presents one of its best seasons with two inspired concerts this fall. Celebrating the Nagrin Legend features signature pieces created by Daniel Nagrin and performed by a guest dancer specially chosen by Nagrin. Expanding Borders introduces the work of Ecuadorian choreographer Pablo Cornejo, who created a new piece expressly for this concert and will be performed by the best ASU dancers.

Celebrating the Nagrin Legend runs Sept. 16–18.
Expanding Borders runs Dec. 1–3.

MAINSTAGE ORGAN
The entire season of Mainstage Organ is devoted to the music of Johann Sebastian Bach in seven diverse, thematic programs called Genesis of Genius, performed by Kimberly Marshall and Jeffrey Campbell. In addition, Kimberly Marshall and the ASU Organ Studio ensemble will be presenting family favorites at the Third Annual Christmas Concert. The program includes seasonal carols and noels—some for four hands and feet!

Genesis of Genius runs from October through March.
Third Annual Christmas Concert runs Dec. 10–11.

All Mainstage productions are on ASU's Tempe Campus in the Paul V. Galvin Playhouse, the Evelyn Smith Music Theatre, the Lyceum Theatre, Dance Studio Theatre or the Organ Concert Hall.

CURTAIN CALL!

New members of the Director's Circle — please take a bow! You've earned the Herberger College's applause and gratitude.

Financial support from Director's Circle members helps us to retain promising students as they face the expense of obtaining an arts education. At the same time, Director's Circle support strengthens the college's role as one of the nation's leading centers for the study, practice and development of the arts.

To learn more about Director's Circle, contact Deanna Stulgaitis, Assistant Director of Development, 480-965-8985.
