The 2009 Arizona Bass Players Festival, Workshop, and Competition

Welcome to the 2009 Arizona Bass Players Festival, presented by Arizona Bass Players, Inc., and ASU School of Music. These four days of spectacular events will prove to be enlightening and educational for all participants and members of the audience. We strive to present the bass in a professional and innovative manner, to inspire generations of bassists to study the bass for fun and edification, and to give the public pause for thought when viewing the bass as anything but a versatile instrument, capable of expressing every emotion!

Arizona Bass Players, Inc. is a Non-Profit (501(c)(3)) Corporation and Public Charity, with the express mandate to present the bass in all its wonderful forms in educational and performance venues. We will be reaching out to our other musician and teacher friends; providing opportunities for them to connect with bassists from around the state and providing them with new opportunities for performance, teaching, and learning. And we will be reaching out to concert audiences, showing that bass players are worth listening to and are worth sponsoring their education. Arizona Bass Players is a conduit for creative thought, teaching, and performance.

The Festival workshops provide one-on-one instruction, group master classes, jam sessions, and "informances" that create opportunities for bassists to learn more about their instrument, innovations in pedagogy, manufacturing, and repertory. The Festival is a great place for young and old alike to network and practice their art together.

The ABP Festival is sponsored in part by a grant from the Arizona Commission on the Arts, with funding from the Natl. Endowment for the Arts. I hope you will join me in supporting the educational efforts of Arizona Bass Players. Your donations and support will help provide incentive to keep music alive in our society, and will help musicians realize their dreams for many years to come. See our web-site at: www.arizonabassplayers.org —— Patrick Neher Joel DiBartolo is Director of Jazz Studies and Professor of String Bass at Northern Arizona University, in Flagstaff. Mr. DiBartolo has had an extensive performing career which includes 18 years with Doc Severinsen and The Tonight Show Band. He has also toured with Buddy Rich, John Abercrombie, Carmen McRae, Freddie Hubbard, Maynard Ferguson, Ernie Watts, Joe Williams, Denny Zeitlin, Sarah Vaughan and many other internationally known jazz artists. Before moving to Arizona in 1994, Mr. DiBartolo was a mainstay in the Los Angeles studio scene and participated in the recording of the soundtracks for hundreds of television shows, movies, commercials and CDs. In addition to his work in the jazz world, Mr. DiBartolo was a member of the Buffalo Philharmonic, conducted by both Josef Krips and Lucas Foss and is currently a member of the Flagstaff Symphony. His major teachers include Buell Neidlinger and David Walter. Mr. DiBartolo holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the University of Buffalo and because of his extensive experience in all fields of music has been granted terminal degree status by NAU. He was also recognized as one of the top eight faculty mentors in the 1999 NAU centennial yearbook and has been the subject of numerous feature articles in local and national publications.

John Clayton is perhaps the most charismatic jazz bassist on the planet! A swingin' seven-time Grammy nominated bassist/composer/conductor, John Clayton's talents are consistently requested by the movers and shakers in the jazz industry. Clayton says, "When composing or arranging for the Clayton-Hamilton Jazz Orchestra, I am a disciple of Duke Ellington, Thad Jones, Oliver Nelson, Quincy Jones and Gil Evans, to name just a few." Regarding his bowing techniques, he cites the radically different techniques of Slam Stewart, Major Holley and Paul Chambers as influences. There is no doubt, however, that John has created a niche for himself. Mr. Clayton has served in artistic and music director positions for the Los Angeles Philharmonic, the Centrum Jazz Workshop, the Vail Jazz Workshop, the Lionel Hampton International Jazz Festival, the Sarasota Jazz Festival and the Santa Fe Jazz Party. He has written and arranged music for Diana Krall, Dee Dee Bridgewater (including her Grammy award winning CD "Dear Ella"), Natalie Cole, Milt Jackson, Nancy Wilson, Quincy Jones, George Benson, Dr. John, Gladys Knight, Regina Carter, Queen Latifah and many others. He has been commissioned by many ensembles, including the Northwest Chamber Orchestra, the American Jazz Philharmonic, the Iceland Symphony, the Metropole Orchestra, the Carnegie Hall Big Band, The Richmond Symphony, the WDR Orchestra, and the Amsterdam Philharmonic. In 1990, he was awarded a platinum record for his stirring arrangement of "The Star-Spangled Banner" performed by Whitney Houston during the Super Bowl. He has won numerous awards such as the Golden Feather Award given to him by the legendary Leonard Feather and the Los Angeles Jazz Society's Composer/Arranger award.

Clayton's serious study of the double bass began at age 16 when he studied with famed bassist, Ray Brown. At age 19, John was the bassist for Henry Mancini's television series "The Mancini Generation." Later he completed his studies at Indiana University in 1975, graduating with a Bachelor of Music in Double Bass. Touring with Monty Alexander and the Count Basie Orchestra followed. He held the principal bass position in the Amsterdam Philharmonic Orchestra for more than five years. The Clayton-Hamilton Jazz Orchestra co-led by John, his brother, saxophonist Jeff Clayton, and drummer, Jeff Hamilton. Also, John co-leads with Jeff, the Clayton Brothers Quintet.

In an effort to sum up John Clayton's unique expertise, “the man just does it all.” He is equally comfortable in jazz and classical music, and hits the mark, whether it is as composer, arranger, conductor, teacher, in addition to his magnificence when he plays his bass.

In March 2008, she was invited to be the collaborative pianist in the Arizona Bass Players Festival and collaborated with Prof. Catalin Rotaru and the Czech Republic bass player Miloslav Gajdos. Gerald Clayton, pianist, Gerald was born on May 11, 1961, in Utrecht, The Netherlands and moved to the United States at a young age. He graduated from the Los Angeles County High School for the Arts (LACHSA) in the summer of 2002 and received a Bachelor's of Music from the Jazz Studies program at USC in the Fall of 2006. Gerald grew up in a musical family (his father is bassist/composer John Clayton and his uncle saxophonist Jeff Clayton) and was exposed to a variety of musical styles from a very young age. He studied classical piano with Mrs. Linda Buck and jazz piano and composition with Shelly Berg, Kenny Barron, and Billy Childs. Gerald was the winner of the 2001 Music Center Spotlight Awards and received the ‘Outstanding Soloist’ Award during the Monterey High School Jazz Competition in 2001 and 2002. Also in 2002, Gerald was presented with the ‘level 1’ award by the National Foundation for the Advancement of the Arts (NFAA), and the Presidential Scholar in the Arts. Gerald has performed at Steinway Hall in New York, was awarded a scholarship by the Music for Youth Foundation, and received the Shelley Manne Award for emerging young artists from the Los Angeles Jazz Society. Gerald has performed extensively with numerous outstanding musicians in a wide variety of venues. Notable engagements include the performance of a composition for piano and orchestra with the Henry Manne Orchestra. In the spring of 2005, Gerald was asked to join pianists Benny Green, Mulgrew Miller and Kenny Barron for a series of duo concerts in Europe. He also performed with trumpeter Clark Terry in Switzerland later that year. In September 2006, Gerald received Second Place in the prestigious Thelonious Monk Institute Jazz Piano Competition.

Michael Kocour is an Associate Professor of Music and the Director of Jazz Studies at ASU. Previously, he served on the Jazz Studies faculty at Northwestern University. Hailed by the Chicago Tribune as "one of the most sophisticated pianists in jazz," Kocour has performed at the 1992 World's Fair in Seville, the Jazz Showcase in Chicago, the Blue Note in New York, and the Chicago, Montreal and Quebec City Jazz festivals. Among the many artists and ensembles with whom he has appeared are Dizzy Gillespie, Eddie Harris, James Moody, Eddie Daniels, Randy Brecker, Benny Golson, Ira Sullivan, Carl Fontana, Dewey Redman, Lew Tabackin, and the Chicago Symphony. His recorded work as a studio musician includes soundtracks to two major motion pictures, and numerous television commercials. He has eight works published by Warner Brothers, which include collections of original compositions and arrangements for piano. Kocour holds a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from University of Illinois and a Master of Music in Music Theory from Northwestern University. He was awarded National Endowment for the Arts study grants in 1988 and 1990 and from 1991–94 he was a visiting lecturer in Jazz Studies and Piano Pedagogy at the University of Illinois. In recognition of excellence in teaching, Mr. Kocour was awarded the Herberger College of Fine Arts Distinguished Teacher Award for the academic year 2004–2005.
Assisting Musicians:

Dom Moio has been playing drums since the fifth grade. His first influence was funk master Bernard Purdie (a drummer for Quincy Jones, Aretha Franklin and Steely Dan). However, after hearing Miles Davis with drummer Jimmy Cobb, Moio's attention was directed toward Jazz. Leaving the East Coast in 1979, Moio played with jazz luminaries such as Mose Allison, Herb Ellis, Ahmad Jamal and Clark Terry. He also had the opportunity to meet and study with legendary Cuban Master Percussionist Walfredo de los Reyes, Sr. It was then he developed a life-long passion for Latin rhythms. Among his frequent record dates, Dom has recorded two CD's with Jazz Great Carl Fontana. He also recorded with The Jazz Nonet with Chuck Marohnic and Greg Hopkins. In 1997, Moio had the opportunity to do a re-recording of the Four Tops hits with the group's original singers, playing both drums and Latin percussion. Mel Bay has published two of Moio's books: Latin Percussion in Perspective and Be-Bop Phrasing for Drums. Moio is currently teaching percussion at Mesa Community College and at Arizona State University while travelling as a clinician for Trick Drums, Latin Percussion, Evans Drum Heads, Calato/Regal Tip Drumsticks and Sabian Cymbals.

Steve Culp, Keyboardist, began playing piano at the age of three. By the time he was twenty-three, he had toured Europe several times, and graduated with honors with a jazz performance degree from Arizona State University. In 1998, Steve graduated once more with honors, this time from the University of Miami with a Masters Degree in Jazz Pedagogy. Through the years, Steve has had the privilege of sharing the stage with some of the most well-known artists in the world – Sister Sledge, Jeff Kashiwa, Earth, Wind & Fire, James Brown, Boney James, Craig Chaquico, Bobby Caldwell, Earl Klugh, Gato Barbieri, Spyro Gyra, Rick Braun, Peter White, and Dick Wagner among many others. For the last ten years, Steve has been a vital part of an original project, Turning Point, an instrumental group with an eclectic sound that mixes progressive jazz with rock, R&B and blues, Greek music and Latin jazz. The latest record, A Thousand Stories, was produced by famed bassist Brian Bromberg and released nationally by A440 Music. Together (1998) earned the band its largest national audience, receiving airplay on more than 40 smooth jazz stations.

Throughout his career, Dan Tomlinson has performed and recorded in a vast amount of musical settings. Along with a full schedule of recording sessions and drum clinics, for the past eleven years, Tomlinson has been the tour drummer for Lyle Lovett. Dan has toured most of the world and has been seen many times on television as on The Tonight Show, David Letterman, Grammy Award shows, and music video segments. Dan has recorded the album Lyle Lovett and His Large Band, Live in Texas (MCA), and two albums with Acoustic Alchemy: Back on the Case (GRP) and The New Edge (GRP). Dan is the author of The World of Drums, voted best drum book of the year 2000 in Drum magazine.

Arizona Bass Players Board of Directors is composed of dedicated musicians who are performers and teachers residing in all corners of the State of Arizona. It is their passion to bring together bassists from around the state, and to enhance the educational and performance opportunities for all who are enthusiastic about the bass. We strive to provide inexpensive services, such as master classes, workshops, outreach activities, and judging and standards consultation, and we hope to create strong liaisons with music organizations and vendors throughout the state — thereby creating a benefit for all.

We accept donations of cash, of course, but also instruments and accessories that we can use as "lenders" or to sell to raise money for scholarship. We provide a limited number of scholarships to participants of the ABP Festival, and we offer free master classes by visiting artists throughout the year. Speakingar of scholarship: we recently established the David Walter Memorial Scholarship in Double Bass, which is designed to provide a non-restricted award to a graduate student in Arizona to study the bass, while honoring the teachings of and the enthusiasm for music held by the late David Walter. This award will be administered by ABP, and will be awarded through jury of applications. The endowment for this fund is in the collection stage. We welcome your donation!

Arizona Bass Players is a non-profit, 501(c)(3) corporation and public charity that operates in cooperation with the three state universities' schools of music and their faculty. We also hope to continue to develop strong liaisons with public schools, music presenters, granting organizations and county governments, vendors, and community colleges.

The Board of Directors have volunteered huge amounts of their time and money to make the festival a success. Please if you get a chance, express your opinion about the festival to them:
