Miloslav Jelínek graduated from Conservatoire in Kroměříž and then from the Janáček Academy of Music and Performing Arts in Brno, Czech Republic. During his studies he participated in a number of solo competitions and won several awards. At present Miloslav Jelínek is the principal bass with the Brno Philharmonic Orchestra and professor at the Janáček Academy of Music and Performing Arts in Brno. He is also the founder and chairman of the Czech Society of Double Bassists. Every year he organizes the International Double Bass Convention in Brno, Czech Republic. Miloslav Jelínek plays an instrument from the workshop of Pöllmann, model Quarneri. Together with his wife Marcela (piano) he performed in a great number of radio and television shows and CD recordings, giving numerous recitals in the Czech Republic as well as abroad. Miloslav Jelínek teaches at many international double bass camps and workshops and is often invited as a jury member for various double bass competitions. He performed the world premieres for a great number of contemporary pieces written for double bass (Teppo Hauta-aho, Tony Osborne, Jiří Matys, František Emmert, Miloš Štědroň etc...).
