One Night in June--4-4
Down the lane there comes the parson, Humming an old tune,
Then he sank down by the way-side, For he loved her too.

How his heart is beating, For his Madeline,
All his dreams were shattered, All his hopes had fled.

And he says: I'll ask her If she will be mine;
For another loved her And they'd surely wed;

But there comes another, Brave and handsome too,
Slowly passed the hours Will he never come,

"One Night in June." — 4-2
And he loves this same girl staunch and true,
Then he heard a shot so loud and clear,

And he says: "Now parson tell me,
And he finds this poor young lover,

For to you I've come,
Dying all for her,

Will you "Take her
tie the sweet knot that will make us one," parson, take her, for 'tis you she loves,"

"One Night in June." — 4-3
On the way to Madeline, The moon was softly shining,

On the way to Madeline, One summer night in June,

Nature seemed so fair and bright, But one poor heart was aching,

On the way to Madeline, One night in June.

"One Night in June." 4-4
