The Lovelight in Your Eyes.

"THE PRINCESS CHIC."

Words by KIRKE LA SHELLE.

Music by JULIAN EDWARDS

Very slow and sustained.

If I might tell you all my heart doth feel, The pent up passion of my soul for you. If I might make one earnest fond appeal And whisper that I would be ever true. Then earth a heav'n would seem to me I'd glory in that paradise, If for one moment I could see The love-light in your eyes, In your dear

If eyes.

I might kneel before you and confess The secret that I cherish in my heart. If I might take you in my arms and press. One kiss upon your lips before we part. Naught could be left for me to know, Naught

more of rapture 'neath the skies, If sweetly there might come and go The love-light in your eyes In your dear eyes.
