The American Billionaire.

Lyric by EDGAR SMITH.

Music by JOHN STROMBERG.

Allegro moderato.

Piano.

1. I've come across the ocean to see what I can buy
2. I've had a talk with Edward and shown him where he's at on the bargain counter some good things catch my eye

I think I have him worried about his new gold hat I've

few more wars and riots and papa he'll go bail
That got his trams and trolleys and I guess before I'm through I'll

For close a deal with England to buy the Island too

Refrain.

In an American billionaire I've come over here to shop And nothing's too rich for "Pep" I have a billion in stocks and shares And everywhere on earth I own a trust.

Ev - er - y thing that you eat and wear
At home or a - cross the sea
You'll soon have to buy from me
For I'm an A - mer - i - can bill - ion - aire
I am go - ing to own the Earth or bust.
