ring I bought, because I thought that we would never part.

as I would, I never could get one glance from her eye:

One day, somehow, we had a row that's turned to ice our love so warm.

Now day I wrote, and sent a note, but I was sorry afterwards:

The when we meet upon the street, she's on another's arm!

answer came: 'I've changed my name—my husband sends regards!'
CHORUS.

That's what hurts my feelings, that's what makes me sad,
When we pass each other by, not to let her know I try, But that's what hurts my feelings, that's what makes me blue;
I don't know what I will do, it hurts my feelings so. so.
