THREE GREEN BONNETS.

High voice.

Words by H. L. HARRIS.

Music by GUY d'HARDELLOT.

Moderato.

Three green bonnets at church one day, (Dulcie and Daisy and Copyright, 1901, by E. Ascherberg & Co. 7106.

Each bonnet tied with a green ribbon bow; One pair of blue eyes; And one pair of gray, And one pair of brown eyes For That's Dorothy May.

Three little heads at the close of day, (Dulcie and Daisy and

Three Green Bonnets.
Dorothy May;
Three little heads of clustering curls,

confidentially.

Three little beds, and three little girls;
Brown eyes are sleeping, and blue eyes, and gray.

But angels are peeping at

Dorothy May.

Three Green Bonnets.
Poco agitato.

mf Tristamente.

Three green bonnets have had their day, (Dulcie and Daisy and Piu lento.

Col mezzo Pedale.

p hushed voice

Dorothy May); Three green bonnets grown old unawares

p

rit. brokenly

atempo

Hang on three pegs at the foot of the stairs, And blue eyes are swollen, And

rit. colla voce

atempo

so are the gray, For angels have stolen Dear Dorothy May!

p poco rit.

With tears in voice.

p molto rit.

p poco rit.

P rit. colla voce

Three Green Bonnets.