A CHAIN WITH A BROKEN LINK.

Moderato.

Wm. H. Windom,
and Paul B. Armstrong.

1. One day while strolling idly thro' a city of the dead, I
2. When life had ceased its restless task to reap its well earned pay, 'Tis no - ticed on a new - made grave an epitaph that read: "Our but the rest the soul does yearn to live eternally. I've Entered according to act of Parliament of Canada, in the year 1911, by McKinley Music Co., at the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, Can.

"Boy at Rest," and then I saw a couple old and gray. Who seen the strongest heart break down, when some dear one has gone Un-

Rit.

kneel beside that little mound, and then began to pray; And to that long last resting place, the great unknown beyond; I've

Rit.

Tempo.

as I saw them kneeling there, I could not help but think. Tis heard them sob with breaking hearts, as in despair they sink: Tis Tempo.

Rit.

but a chain of shattered hopes, a chain with a broken link!

only this and nothing more. a chain with a broken link!

Rit.

A Chain with a Broken Link. 3-9.
CHORUS.\h Waltz.
\h mf

'Tis but a chain with a broken link. And one that cannot last.

Rit.

When broken once, try and mend. 'Tis but a hopeless task.

Tempo.

So when the Master has called your name. 'Tis useless then to shrink.

Cres.

'Tis but the same old story told. A chain with a broken link.

A Chain with a Broken Link. 5-3.