CHOW-CHOW.

Miss Susanna from Urbana.

SONG.

Introduction.
Tempo di Schottische.

By RURKHARDT & HUBBELL.

1. There's a dainty little maiden, and she's cute as she can be, Lives in a town of small renown, She has captured all the Brum-mels of the town.

2. Now this dainty little maiden, had a 'phone put in the hall, This lassie shy, I'll tell you why, For her date book's over crowded and she Copyright MCMII, by Chas. K. Harris. Entered at Stationer's Hall, London, Eng.

Entered according to Act of the Parliament of Canada, in the year MCMII, by Chas. K. Harris, at the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, Can.
Miss Susanna from Urbana. 4-1. town's society, She's on the brain of every swain: When she won't allow a call unless they own a telephone: All day sings, they flock around her just to show how well they know, That she's the long she hears the merry tiling a ling a ling a ling, From benxga-best, She knows the rest, And when she sings Hosanna, They sur-lore, Dudes by the score, And when she misses central, You can

Miss Susanna from Urbana. 4-9.
round the old piano, While the other girls in jealousy cry out: "Oh fudge."

but it's accidental, For she has a string upon the manager: "Hello!"

CHORUS.

Miss Susanna from Urbana, Quite a cultivated lassie, you'll agree;

Plays piano Rusticana, And she knows the other classes A to
All the neighbors say that she can play that song Ta-ra-ra-Boom-de-ay, In such a fine artistic way, They're going to move the first of May, When she tackles old Beethoven, And then wrestles with Do-Koven, There is always something doin' in Urbana, Miss Susanna.